

Mountain Play Junior Board

Roles and Responsibilities

Junior Board is... a collective of young adults from the ages of 14-22, who are interested in theatre, nonprofits, and governance. As leaders and innovators, Junior Board members will find ways to empower themselves and become theatre advocates.

January - June Commitments:

- Monthly board meetings (at San Rafael office; time to be decided by current group)
- Ongoing projects (see below)
- Volunteer at least twice during the run of HELLO, DOLLY!
- Ambassadorship and representation of the Mountain Play mission and brand
- Help plan and attend the Memorial Day Parade, Monday 5/25/2020

Possible Projects (to be decided):

- Marketing: create and implement marketing campaigns with video projects, merchandise, and social media
- Performances: put on small-scale performances for under-served communities in the Bay Area either on or off the mountain.
- Fundraising: create a project either on or off the mountain to raise money for a particular need at the Mountain Play
- Other projects: Junior Board can pitch new projects at any time - creativity is encouraged!

To apply, please email robyn@mountainplay.org to receive our application!

